HONOR CODE

George Mason University shares the tradition of an honor system that has existed in Virginia since 1842. The Honor Code is an integral part of university life, and it is the student’s responsibility to understand the provisions of the code. Attempted cheating, plagiarism, lying, and stealing constitute Honor Code violations. In the spirit of the code, students and faculty must report all violations to the Honor Committee. The complete Honor Code is found in the University Catalog and will be fully explained during orientation.

I will read and accept the responsibility of the Honor Code if I am approved for admission to George Mason University.
